

Kansas Corn
SYMPOSIUM

Celebrating Kansas Corn: Our Crop, Our Future.

Thursday, Jan. 29, 2026 • Hilton Garden Inn, Salina

REGISTER TO ATTEND AT KSCORN.COM/SYMPOSIUM

“AI FOR ALL: PRACTICAL STRATEGIES FOR EVERY AG PROFESSIONAL”

Keynote presentation features Steve Lerch, former Google executive and leading AI expert. Steve has traveled the world sharing powerful insights on artificial intelligence. Don't miss your chance to see how simple & free AI tools can be used on your farm for everything from employee training to data management.

CELEBRATE. CONNECT. LOOK AHEAD.

Be part of the Kansas Corn Symposium—where Kansas corn farmers, leaders, and partners come together to celebrate success and shape the future of our industry.

- ◆◆ Thursday, January 29, 2026
- ◆◆ Hilton Garden Inn, Salina
- ◆◆ Registration opens at 11:30 a.m.
- ◆◆ KCGA Annual Meeting begins at 2:30 p.m.
- ◆◆ Kansas Corn Banquet begins at 6:00 p.m.

Welcome Remarks by Kansas Secretary of Agriculture, Mike Beam

THINGS YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS!

- ◆◆ Keynote at 1 PM: Steve Lerch, former Google Executive — “AI for All: Practical Strategies for Every Ag Professional.” Learn how artificial intelligence technology can benefit your farm
- ◆◆ Evening Entertainment: SINGO! — A fun, music-filled twist on bingo with prizes and laughter guaranteed.

Reserve your seat and view the full agenda at kscorn.com/symposium

KANSAS CORN

1680 Charles PL, Suite 200
Manhattan KS 66502